Presentation Slides and Presentation Recording

Pratheepa Jeganathan

13 March, 2023

Instructions

- Due before 11:59 PM on Friday, March 30th 2023.
- Submit a copy of 1) a PDF of slides (6-7 slides) and 2) a recorded presentation (6-8 minutes) to Avenue to Learn using the link that was emailed to you.
  - You can also submit the recording by emailing jeganp1@mcmaster.ca, but you must submit the presentation slides to Avenue.
- Presentation components submitted after the due date will receive a zero grade.

For the presentation component of your class project, you will prepare slides and record your presentation. The presentation is about your analysis and results on the dataset you considered for the class project.

Presentation Slides Standards

Your presentation slides must conform to the standards listed below. You can use the template posted on Avenue to Learn.

- RMarkdown or  $\text{\LaTeX}$  is strongly recommended.
- Write your name, student number, and title on the title slide. We will only grade assignments with the title slide.
- The dimension of each slide must be no larger than  $1024 \times 768$ , and the font size should be no smaller than 16pt (The template for the presentation is posted on Avenue).

- Your slides may not exceed 6-7 slides. In addition, you may use one slide for the title, one for the outline, and one for the bibliography.
- You may discuss project and presentation ideas with other students, but you must prepare the presentation slides yourself.
- The slides and referencing should be appropriate to the graduate level.
- The instructor may use various tools, including publicly available internet tools, to check the originality of submitted work.

Recorded Presentation Standards

- Record your presentation (6-8 minutes).
- You must use the presentation slides during the recording.
- You must attend the oral presentation.

Grading scheme

The presentation slides are 5% of your class project. The oral presentation is 10% of your class project. You must submit the presentation recording to get both points (5% and 10%).
